Galliard Homes, in joint venture with Cain Hoy, McCourt, Vanke and The Estate Office Shoreditch are launching The Stage in Shoreditch, a £750,000,000 transformation of the 2.3 acre site of William Shakespeare's Curtain Theatre into a new, mixed-use destination for London.

With a masterplan by award-winning architects

Perkins+Will and interiors by Argent Design, the development will feature four striking new buildings – a 37-storey landmark residential tower providing 412 private-sale apartments and penthouses, two office buildings and a fantastic leisure/performing-arts pavilion – complete with a beautifully-restored, 19th-century railway viaduct.
