What is the future for
High Rise apartments?

Baltimore Tower

Frogmore, in partnership with Galliard Homes, have purchased the Baltimore Wharf development in London's Docklands, previously owned by The Ballymore Group. The development provides views across the Manhattan-esque Canary Wharf.

The £30 million residential tower at Baltimore Wharf will provide 330 spectacular apartments and penthouses with prices ranging from £300,000 up to £1+million for the penthouses.
